Cookies Policy

FXON Ltd (herein after “the Company”, “us”, “our” or “we”) is committed to complying with applicable laws wherever we do business. This is not only vital to our continued success in an increasingly regulated global marketplace, but also reflects our commitment to conduct business in accordance with the highest legal and ethical standards.

The Company is registered in the republic of Seychelles under the applicable regime, with registration number 8428188-1, and authorized by the Financial Services Authority of Seychelles with Securities Dealer’s License Number SD091. Its registered office is at F2-2A, Second Floor, Oceanic House, Providence Estate, Mahe, Seychelles.

When you use our Website, the Company will use cookies to distinguish you from other users of our Website. This helps us to provide you with a more relevant and effective experience when you browse our Website, including presenting websites according to your needs or preferences and it allows us to improve the site generally.

This Cookie Policy provides you with comprehensive information about the cookies we use and the way in which we use them. You should also read our Privacy Policy in conjunction with this Policy.

1. What is a cookie?

Cookies are small files of information that often include a unique identification number or value, which are stored on your computer’s hard drive as a result of you using our Website. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies as soon as you visit our Website.

Cookies are frequently used on many websites on the internet and you can choose if and how a cookie will be accepted by changing your preferences and options in your browser. Some of our business partners (e.g. advertisers) use cookies on our Website(s). We have no access to, or control over, these cookies.

The cookies do not contain personally identifying information nor are they used to identify you. You may choose to disable the cookies. However, you may not be able to access some parts of our Website if you choose to disable the cookie acceptance in your browser, particularly the secure parts of the Website.

2. How to delete and block cookies

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website. For further information about disabling cookies, please refer to www.allaboutcookies.org.

A. Block/Reject All Cookies

It is possible for you to disable cookies by changing their browser settings. However, some services may not be available if cookies are disabled.

4. The way in which we use cookies Session Cookies

We use session cookies for the following purposes:

- To allow you to carry information across pages of our site and avoid having to re-enter information.

- Within registration to allow you to access stored information.
- Non personal data for tagging purposes only (by random number).

5. Persistent Cookies

We use persistent cookies for the following purposes:

- To help us recognize you as a unique visitor (just a number) when you return to our website and to allow us to tailor content or advertisements to match your preferred interests or to avoid showing you the same adverts repeatedly.
- To compile anonymous, aggregated statistics that allow us to understand how users use our site and to help us improve the structure of our Website.
- To internally identify you by account name, name, email address, customer ID, currency and location (geographic and computer ID/IP address).
- To differentiate users who are on the same network to enable us to correctly allocate transactions to the appropriate account.
- Within research surveys to ensure you are not invited to complete a questionnaire too often or after you have already done so.

6. Third Party Cookies

Third parties serve cookies via this site. These are used for the following purposes:

- To serve advertisements on our site and track whether these advertisements are clicked on by users.
- To control how often you are shown a particular advertisement.
- To tailor content to your preferences.
- To count the number of anonymous users of our site.
- For website usage analysis

7. Use of Web Beacons

Some of our Web pages may contain electronic images known as Web beacons (sometimes known as clear gifs) that allow us to count users who have visited these pages. Web beacons collect only limited information which including a cookie number, time and date of a page view, and a description of the page on which the Web beacon resides. We may also carry web beacons placed by third party advertisers. These beacons do not carry any personally identifiable information and are only used to track the effectiveness of a particular campaign.
